

If I Were.

If I were a clock on the wall, I would, hang around wasting time.

If I were a clock on the wall, I would ticktock all night long.

If I were a clock on the wall, I would rule over you like a King.

If I were a clock on the wall, I would want to be a calendar instead.

If I were a calendar on the wall, I would show you pretty places to see.

If I were a calendar on the wall, I would remind you of important things.

If I were a calendar on the wall, I would want to be a speck on the wall instead.

If I were a speck on the wall, I would see your brightest days.

If I were a speck on the wall, I would be your best friend and promise to never tell on you.

But, I'm just words on a page.
